

BASE BALL AT FAIR GROUNDS

Both Games Captured By Browns Over Silver City Blues.

MANY ERRORS BUT THEY PLEASED

In consecutive games played Saturday and Sunday afternoon at Athletic park, the Browns defeated the Silver City base ball club by telling margins.

On Saturday the score was 7 to 2, and on Sunday, 10 to 6.

In each game the locals demonstrated clearly their superiority over the Grays, both in generalship and cleverness, although with a few weak positions strengthened, Silver City would be able to give the Browns a good tussle.

In Saturday's game the Browns had the best of the game by the phenomenal pitching of Starr, a husky young man who is a new find of Manager Houston. Starr pitched the whole game, striking out sixteen of thirty-three men who went to bat. He also cracked out a two-bagger in the center field in the ninth. In this game Silver City suffered from errors made at third and short.

Sunday's game was one resplendent with errors, but not entirely devoid of brilliant plays. Of the latter, Vorhes, of the Browns, and Flood, of the Grays, have one each. Vorhes caught a liner which seemed a sure hit. Flood made a pretty run in center field, catching a fly, which fell far behind the position he was playing. But as a whole, both teams played ragged ball. Gallages, who pitched for the Browns, seemed easy. The Grays hammered him freely and some of the weakest batters made good.

This game, although poorly played, was quite interesting because of the many peculiar situations. Both teams had turns at altitudinous ascensions.

In the second inning McDonald threw the ball away at a time when the bases were full and three Grays entered over the plate. The Silver City runners squawked at the Brown's expense.

In the third inning the Grays took a turn at the rattin box. The Browns piled up five runs.

Wilson pitched a very good game for the Grays. Although a little wild at times, if his support had been good, the story would have been different.

FIRE AT THE SHOPS

IT WAS A NARROW ESCAPE FROM A SERIOUS CONFLAGATION.

The mocking bird whistle sounded an alarm of fire yesterday turned in from box 54. Box 54 is the shop station and the fire was found to be in the platform of the oil house inside the stockade and dangerously close to several tanks containing several thousand gallons of oil.

The second alarm followed closely after the initial calling out of the city department. Old Don and the new horse made a good run down Second street, across the street car tracks and through the gate of the stockade. The shops fire department had streams of water playing on the conflagration, but the oil saturated wood burned fiercely, crackling de-fiance to the fire fighters.

It was Fire Chief Burtless' first real fire since taking up the local department and the matterfulness with which he handled the situation was admirable. Within a short time the department with its handful of men had several streams of water playing and the flames were soon in a state of subjection.

Master Mechanic Bean of the shops thanked Mr. Burtless and his men for their work and commended Chief Burtless very highly as a fire fighter.

DR. A. P. MORRISON.

Missionary for the M. E. Church for New Mexico, Visits Roswell.

Dr. A. P. Morrison, missionary for New Mexico for the Methodist Episcopal church, left after a visit to Roswell, says the Roswell Record. Dr. Morrison is highly pleased with the progress that Rev. William Reaso has made with the church here. He says:

"We have four lots in view for our new church site and the lot will be purchased in the near future and the work on the building of the church will begin early in the fall. We are not prepared to say at the present time how much money will be in-vested in the new building, but it will be better than some of the Roswell churches and will compare with the best. We are building an excellent church at Albuquerque, and the new church at Silver City is nearing completion. We also have an excellent church building at El Paso, and the work of the church in New Mexico is very satisfactory. I have just written to the east that from the present prospects here we can build and dedi-cate the church in Roswell without delay. I find that the weather is dry in the vicinity of Silver City. There has been no rain except small show-ers in that portion of the territory since November. There is no water for the cattle and the water for do-mestic purposes is beginning to be-come a serious question at Silver City. I will be in El Paso in a few days, and do not wish to talk too big at present, but we expect big things in this city."

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alex-andra, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 55 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all druggists.

The Farmington Canning Factory.

The big canning factory is rapidly assuming a condition where it will be ready to handle fruit. The contract for the building was completed by Messrs. Pittat & Campbell and a thorough piece of work it is. The vats are being made by Mr. Pittat and teams are on the way with the last of the machinery. The engine and boiler are in place and but a few more days work will be required to have everything in shape for the blowing of the little and the calling of the hands to the factory.

Already wholesale houses are making offers to handle the output at sat-isfactory prices and there is no doubt that the enterprise will prove profit-able to its promoters as well as of great benefit to the town.—Farmington Times-Herald.

RESPONDENT AND GAVE UP FIGHT

CHARLES E. QUINN, OF TOLEDO,

OHIO, SICK AND OUTLAW FROM HOME TAKES MORPHINE.

Charles E. Quinn, alias Charles E. Phillips, committed suicide at the St. George hotel, El Paso, by taking mor-phine. The poison was taken Friday night, as the man's body when dis-covered Saturday, showed that he had been dead ten or fifteen hours.

The deceased arrived in El Paso about seven weeks ago and registered at the St. George as "Charles E. Phil-lips, Toledo, Ohio." He was a young man about 25 years of age, neatly dressed and of prepossessing ap-pearance. He had very little to say to any one.

He was not seen about the hotel all day Saturday and Sunday night and at- tache of the house went to the man's room to deliver a letter and found him lying dead in his bed with the room door locked from the in-side.

Justice Mitchell was promptly sum-moned and after examining the body and room he turned the body over to Undertakers Nagley & Carr. On a table in the dead man's room was found a bottle which had originally contained 100 hypodermic morphine sulphate tablets, and the label on the bottle indicated that each tablet con-tained a quarter grain of morphine, making 25 grains in the bottle. All of the tablets but three were gone.

In the dead man's coat pocket was a letter written from a friend in To-le-do, Ohio, and the contents of the letter clearly indicated that the de-ceased was in hiding to avoid punish-ment for a sin of some kind. The writer of the letter said:

"The old man is still hunting for you and you had better keep in hid-ing."

A little book found in the pocket of the suicide contained the address: "Mrs. Helen A. Quinn, 1442 West Bancroft street, Toledo Ohio."

A telegram sent to that address by Nagley & Carr developed the fact that Mrs. Quinn was the mother of the suicide and that his real name was Charles E. Quinn. She ordered the remains shipped to her at Toledo.

Justice Mitchell will hold an in-quest today. He declined to allow any reporters to see the letters found on the dead man's body.

Quinn was in poor health and did not engage in any work after his ar-rival here.

Married at Magdalena. The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Macintosh at Magdalena was the scene of a very pretty wedding on July 14, when their niece, Miss Annie Cameron, a charming and accom-plished Scotch lassie who has made her home with them for the past five years, gave her heart and hand to Mr. Foss Field, one of the efficient clerks in the employ of the Becker-Blackwell Co., of that place, and a brother of Mr. N. A. Field of Burley. The bride was attired in a traveling dress a combination of white and champagne silk. The happy couple were attended by Miss Mary Blinn, daughter of Dr. Charles Blinn of Kel-ly, and Mr. John Kane of Magdalena. They left on the morning train for a honey moon trip of some weeks, after which they will be at home to their many friends at their cozy home in Magdalena, prepared by Mr. Field for his bride last winter. They were the recipients of many handsome pres-ents.—Roswell Chiefman.

Faywood Springs Resort.

FALSE REPORTS PUNCTURED

WORLD'S FAIR WAS COMPLETED

WEEKS AGO—LIVING RATES

REMARKABLY REASONABLE.

All reports in the effect that the World's fair is in an incomplete state are false. Without exception, the main exhibit palaces were finish-ed before the day of opening, April 30, and since then every state and foreign building and concession struc-tures that was not finished at that time has been completed, with the single exception of one small build-ing for which the concession was let only three weeks ago. The House of the Hood, which was destroyed by fire a few weeks after the opening, has been rebuilt, and will be reopened in a few days.

The entire grounds are in a perfect state of completeness and present a most beautiful picture in these mid-summer days. The landscaping de-partment, in spite of a great deal of unfavorable weather, has been able to put the grounds into such shape as to elicit the hearty admiration of all visitors who are able to preserve the beautiful. Any statement that the grounds are "half finished," or in any degree uncompleted, is patently false. The splendid grounds show for themselves.

As to the exhibits, no exposition ever held showed such a complete-ness of installation on the opening day. During the ten weeks that have passed since April 30, practically every unfinished exhibit has been in-stalled, with the exception of such exhibits as are changed or renewed from month to month according to the season. It is only an unfair critic who finds fault, because here and there he may discover a workman rearranging a booth, or a truckman bringing in additional material to add to the wonderful displays al-ready in place.

The World's fair has been injured more or less by the publication of grossly erroneous statements regard-ing the cost of living in St. Louis. Gradually these false reports are be-ing refuted in the press and by word of mouth, as visitors from far and near come to St. Louis and find that living accommodations are remark-ably reasonable. There are scores of restaurants where an abundant and wholesome meal may be had for 25c, and there are scores of hotels where lodging at $1.00 a day is the prevail-ing rate. Thousands of private fam-ilies, in the best residential districts of the city have opened their homes for the entertainment of World's fair visitors, at rates or lodgings rang-ing from 50c per day up. For $1.00 an excellent room may be had in a most respectable neighborhood, and there are many boarding houses and private dwellings where lodging and breakfast may be obtained at from $1.00 to $1.25. Rooms taken by the week, or occupied by two or more persons, are rented at still lower fig-ures. Naturally, one may find hotels in St. Louis where the rates are as high as those usually prevailing in New York, Chicago or any other large city; but the fact remains that in view of the great expectation that is now running in full swing the aver-age rate of living in St. Louis is sur-prisingly low. Any report to the contrary is either made wilfully or through ignorance. That the expo-sition is already a success is attested by the unqualified words of praise which it receives from distinguished visitors hailing from all parts of the world, and from the fact that the attendance is doubling with each month of the fair.

DEMING NOTES

WELCOMED RAINS—SOCIAL EN-TERTAINMENT—FRUIT NOT ALL KILLED.

Special Correspondence.

Deming, July 25.—A nice shower here last Thursday morning and an-other good one Friday afternoon. Rain has fallen to the southwest and south of Deming in the Mimbres valley on the Florida and at Cooke, and between Deming and the Rio Grande. Since the beginning of the rains the weather has been very pleasant, with cool nights and ideal days. While the rainfall to date has not been very considerable, it is to be hoped, now that it has got started, that we may have a wet season from this on.

Mrs. James H. Waddill, and W. T. Russell of the Sunset dairy, both of whom have been for some time slightly indisposed, are again able to be about.

A. Sherran who a few weeks ago was so unfortunate as to have his arm mangled in a well-digging ma-chine, has entirely recovered, and has gone back to Baker's ranch, where he was working at the time of the accident.

Postmaster R. G. Clarke and C. C. Bennett, cashier of the Deming Na-tional bank, are both smiling over the advent of baby girls at their homes.

Hon. Amos W. Pollard has just re-turned from a visit to his old home at Portage, Wisconsin. Mr. Pollard says the summer has been very wet and cool in Wisconsin.

The Deming Blues, a new base ball club, made up for the most part of boys belonging to the Deming public schools, with David Olson as man-ager, has just been organized. The members have raised $91.50 to date. When they get themselves into shape, the Blues hope to compete with the light weight teams of the territory.

Mamie Lou, the little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Swopes, gave a party at home last Thursday evening, from 7 until 10 in honor of her little great and cousin, Helen Clay Weaver, of Harston, Texas. Refreshments were served in the summer house and the beautiful Swopes lawn was lit up with Japanese lanterns. There were fourteen guests.

B. M. Smith, secretary and director of the New York Texas and Mex-ico, and the Gulf, Western Texas and Pacific railroads, whose family have spent the last six or seven months in Deming, came in Thursday from Victoria, Texas, and will spend a few days in town.

Mrs. W. R. Merrill, who has been camping for the last six weeks at Byron's ranch, eight miles east of town, returned to her home yester-day.

Last spring it was reported that all the fruit on the Mimbres river had been killed by the late frosts. This is a mistake. Very fine early peaches and apples from ranches in that valley have been offered upon the streets of Deming during the present month. It is understood that there will be a fairly good crop of late peaches, grapes and winter apples.

Ralph C. Ely, for the past two or three years connected with West Camp at Cooke's Peak, has just re-turned from the east, where he has or-ganized what is to be known as the Luna Land company, for the purpose of mining and treating lead ores in this county. The company, of which Mr. Ely is secretary and general man-ager, has ample capital. They con-template the erection of a small smelter at an early date, possibly at Deming. Mr. Ely is an energetic and worthy man, and it is to be hoped that the smelter may be erected in Deming.

You Never Know the Moment When This Information May Prove of In-finite Value.

It is worth considerable to any citi-zen of Albuquerque to know how to be-sure of painful, annoying and itchy-ing piles. You know that Doan's Oint-ment is a positive remedy for all ills of the skin, for piles, eczema, etc. One application relieves and cures. Read this testimony of its merit:

J. H. Cross, of 522 South First street, employed in the Santa Fe shops, in the mill apartment, says: "Exposure and sitting on damp logs and cold stones while in the mountains some three months ago, brought on itching hemorrhoids. More commonly they are called piles. While not severe or serious they were very annoying and I put off doing anything to get relief until compelled to. One evening I stepped into the Alvarado Pharmacy and asked Mr. Briggs for something to bring relief. I finally decided on Doan's Ointment. The first application gave relief and in a short time I was practically cured. I have great con-fidence in this remedy for what it did for me. I never used anything which was so soothing and healing. I recom-mend it to others and know they will not be disappointed in the results if they give it a trial."

DISTRICT COURT.

The district court this morning made an order directing the sale of the James land grant, and a division of the proceeds to the numerous own-ers.

Judgment was awarded during the week to the Consolidated Supply com-pany in its suit on open account against E. H. Hotelling to the amount of $100.

Harry F. Lee obtained judgment for $200 and interest in his suit against Henry Huning, et al. The case is the continuation of the old Lee sa-lute.

In the case of the Bank of Com-merce vs. Vincent Pino judgment was rendered for the plaintiff to the amount of $562. The suit was for the non-payment of a promissory note on the part of the defendant.

Motion to withdraw garnishment made by Chas. Rita, an employee of the Santa Fe, was sustained by Judge Baker. The amount involved was small, the motion alleging that the gar-nishment had not been legally issued.

In the suit of W. V. Williams against Edward Dickerson, the contest being over the title to lot 25 block 15, Al-buquerque Town company addition, judgment was rendered in favor of the former. The court ruled to quiet title to the property in favor of the plaintiff.

The possession of a certain tract of land south of Albuquerque was given to M. C. Ortiz, who was the plaintiff in a suit against Angela Vivland, in-volving the right of possession. The plaintiff was also awarded small dam-ages against the defendant.

A decree of divorce was granted to Miguel C. de Cosma on the grounds of desertion, as alleged in her peti-tion. Chilo Cosma, the husband de-fendant in the suit, failed to deny the allegations made against him, and the court at once issued orders that the decree be entered.

The Farmington Fair Meeting.

An adjourned meeting of those in-terested in the Farmington fair met at the Times-Herald office Mon-day night. The meeting organized by electing Wm. Butler as temporary chairman. On motion it was decided to proceed to the election of officers. J. A. Duff was elected president, John C. Hubbard secretary, and an executive committee consisting of A. E. Dustin, Harley N. Knight, C. C. Pittat, W. A. Hunter and Wm. Butler. A. M. Amesen was on motion, elected treasurer. Samples of hangers were examined and it was decided to sub-mit these to a meeting of the execu-tive committee. At the meeting of the executive committee half sheet han-gers will be ordered and the fair be advertised in the outside towns. The fair without big crops and the rail-road building will be the biggest event the county has ever witnessed.

At a school yesterday afternoon Mr. Stevens arrived home, but he found everything locked and barred against his entrance. Feeling that his wife was inside of the house, and surmising that something was wrong, he broke in the kitchen door and made haste to the sleeping room. He soon realized her condition, and walking across the street to Mrs. Lane's he used the telephone. Mrs. Lane and daughters and other neigh-bors had by this time responded to the appeals of the husband, but they were powerless to render any assist-ance until the arrival of Dr. Pearce. The latter applied the proper reme-dies, and after working with the woman nearly three hours pronounc-ed her out of danger.

The letter she wrote, showing a determined and premeditated desire to shuffe off her earthly life, was left to her husband. ##### DR. PEARCE CALLED JUST IN TIME

Yesterday afternoon, at No. 318 South Fourth street, near Lead ave-nue, Mrs. Emma Stevens, the wife of Fred Stevens, a stone mason, at-tempted self-destruction by the Lau-danum route, and had it not been for the timely summoning of Dr. Pearce, who worked with the woman from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock p. m., the sad story of family quarrels, drug-taking, incompatibility of temper, and the ever desire of husband and wife to find fault with each other, would have ended at the grave.

As the story goes, Mrs. Stevens got divorcer, and her husband failed to appear at the usual time—1 o'clock. She then grew desperate and leaving the dinner on the table, took a bath and placed on her gown. A handy phial, containing laudanum, was then brought into the case, and from the phial Mrs. Stevens took two teaspoon-fuls. She had in the meantime lock-ed both the front and rear doors, and barred the windows. Having com-pleted these arrangements and the writing of a lengthy letter to her hus-band, telling him that she could not stand his abuse and non-attention any longer, she laid on the bed and quiet-ly waited for death.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mr. Stevens arrived home, but he found everything locked and barred against his entrance. Feeling that his wife was inside of the house, and surmising that something was wrong, he broke in the kitchen door and made haste to the sleeping room. He soon realized her condition, and walking across the street to Mrs. Lane's he used the telephone.
